

ANNUAL CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES 2024-25
EKLAVYA MODEL RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL ADMISSION CEREMONY 2024-25
DATE:- 01/07/2024

Eklavya Model Residential School celebrated its admission ceremony today, [Insert Date], marking the beginning of a new academic journey for its students. The event aimed to provide quality education and holistic development opportunities to each student.

The program commenced with a welcome speech by the school's Principal, Mrs. Sujata Arjune, who shared the school's objectives and inspired students to excel in their academic lives.

The highlight of the admission ceremony was the showcase of the school's various programs and culturally enriched learning environment. Students participated in sessions guiding them on how to shape their future. The school also introduced its modern teaching technology and facilities.

The event was attended by the school management, teachers, and non-teaching staff, who provided students with essential information about school life and the admission process.

Sickle Cell Anemia Disease

On July 9, 2024, a public awareness campaign about Sickle Cell disease was organized in the school premises. As part of this program, students participated in a rangoli competition and a theatrical performance. The school's Principal, Mrs. Sujata Arjune, and teachers provided information about Sickle Cell disease.

Furthermore, on July 15, 2024, a medical check-up was conducted for all students regarding Sickle Cell disease.

World Tribal Day

On August 9, 2024, World Tribal Day was celebrated in the school with various cultural programs. Students presented music, dance, and theatrical performances.

The school's Principal, Mrs. Sujata Arjune, provided information about the struggles of Birsa Munda for the tribal community.

Independence Day

The program on Independence Day, 15th August, began with the hoisting of the national flag by the Principal, Mrs. Sujata Arjune.

The main part of the event was celebrated with various cultural programs. The students presented patriotic songs, dances, and a play. An essay reading on the topic "The Contribution of the Tribal Community in the Freedom Struggle" was conducted. This essay highlighted how the tribal community played a significant role in the freedom movement, and the students were informed about this contribution.

Under the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign, the school's staff and students distributed national flags to the residents of Wai Khurd village and explained the importance of Independence Day to them.

Raksha Bandhan Festival

Raksha Bandhan is a special Indian festival that symbolizes the bond and love between brothers and sisters.

At the Eklavya Model Residential School in Dharani, the Raksha Bandhan celebration was observed with great joy. The program began in the presence of the school principal and senior teachers. All the teachers and students gathered together, and the school was filled with a joyful atmosphere. Through the teachers' guidance, the students understood the significance of the Raksha Bandhan festival. The female students, honoring the brother-sister bond, tied Rakhi to their fellow students and teachers. The program concluded with the distribution of best wishes to all the students.

Constitution Forum Program

At the Eklavya Model Residential School in Dharani, a Constitution Forum program was organized to provide students with information about the Indian Constitution, and to explain their rights, duties, and fundamental principles. To emphasize the importance of the Constitution, the principal, teachers, and non-teaching staff, along with the students, took out a rally in the village to raise awareness about the Constitution. While promoting the significance of the Constitution, a play was presented by the students in the village of Wai Khurd. The play conveyed an important lesson on national unity to the people.

Sport Day

At Eklavya Model Residential School in Dharani, a residential school, various sports events were organized on the occasion of Major Dhyan Chand's Remembrance Day. The program began with a tribute to Major Dhyan Chand's portrait and flag hoisting by the school's principal, Mrs. Sujata Arjune. The importance of sports was explained to the students by the principal and teachers. Different competitions were organized for boys and girls according to their respective houses.

Swachhata Pakhawada

The students of Eklavya Model Residential School conducted a cleanliness fortnight program on the school campus. As part of this program, the students organized a rally in the village, raising awareness about the importance of cleanliness through slogans. They also cleaned the village, performed a skit, and received valuable guidance from the school's principal, teachers, and non-teaching staff. With the support of the school staff, the cleanliness fortnight program was successfully carried out by the students.

Cultural Activity

As is customary, Eklavya Model Residential School, Dharni, continued its tradition of nurturing students' artistic talents during the academic year 2024-25. Various cultural programs were organized, allowing students to showcase their creativity. The school's principal and teachers provided valuable guidance, focusing on innovative education and cultural preservation, to ensure students' overall development.

Marathi Language Pride Day Program Eklavya Model Residential School, Dharni

On February 27, 2025, the Marathi Language Pride Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Eklavya Model Residential School, Dharni. This day is observed to commemorate the birth anniversary of the renowned Marathi writer and poet V. S. Khandekar. The event was organized with the aim of creating awareness among students about the richness, beauty, and cultural significance of the Marathi language.

The program began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp and a Saraswati Vandana (prayer). Following this, the school Principal, Mrs. Sujata Arjune, delivered a thoughtful address emphasizing the importance of the Marathi language. Various students presented speeches, poems, short skits, and performances based on Marathi folk literature and traditions.

Annual Gathering 2025

The annual gathering of Eklavya Model Residential School, Dharni, was celebrated with great enthusiasm and festivity in 2025. The event marked an important milestone in encouraging the students' talents and leadership qualities.

The program began with the traditional lamp lighting and Saraswati Pooja. Senior officials from the education department, parents, and local dignitaries were present as chief guests. The school principal welcomed the guests and presented a review of the school's academic and extracurricular achievements over the year.

The cultural performances by the students were the main highlight of the gathering. Folk dances, skits, patriotic songs, and performances based on environmental themes and tribal culture won the hearts of the audience. Some students also presented science experiments and demonstrations with strong social messages.

Art and Science Exhibition

A Science and Art Exhibition was held at our school on 25th January, just before the annual Cultural Fest. The exhibition showcased innovative science projects and creative artworks prepared by students from various classes.

The exhibition provided a platform for young minds to express their scientific curiosity and artistic talents. The event was well-attended by parents, teachers, and students, and was appreciated for its informative and visually engaging displays.